THIS Limiteent has been long used only as the privation of an emment Physician. It has been used in this way more than eight years, during the whole of which time, although prescribed in a great in the of cases, it has never, in any instance, been shown to fail.

Many of the cases which have been effectually cured by this Limitent, have been of more than thirty years standing, causing great suffering and producing consultable rease upon the system. These chould cases have yielded as readily to the virtues of this remedy a those of more recent date. Experience warrants the ascertion, that there cannot be a case of Piles, unconnected with other diseases, which will not be forced to yield before the well-tested powers of this medicine.

Testimony of Mr. Natuas Mathews, a highly respeciable and wealthy citizen of Newark, N. J.

Dr. G. W. Halsky: I believe your Forest Wine and Pills have been he meers of saving my life. When I commenced taking them I laid at the point of death with Broney, Piles, and Asthma. My physicians had, given me over as past cure, and my family had lost all hopes of my recovery. While in this dreadful situation, your Forest Wine and Pills were procured for me, and before I had finished the first bottle of the Wine and box of Pills, I experienced great relief; my body and limbs, which were greatly swollen, became tensibly reduced. Hopes of my recovery began now to revive, and after continuing the use of your medicines for about a month, the Piles and Asthma were completely cured. The Bropsy, with which my life was placed in suchgreat danger, was also nearly gone. I have continued the use of your medicines until the present time, and I now cript as perfect health as ever I ent time, and I now orley as perfect heath as ever I did in my life, athlough I am more than sixty years of age.

Great Cure of Liver Complaint of Ten Years Standing.

Are diseases of the mind as well as of the body, are usually brought on by troubles and affliction, and are most common to persons of delicate constitutions and sensitive minds. Low spirits, melancholy, frightful dreams, and fearful anticipations of evil from the slightest causes, generally accompany nervous disorders.—The Forest Wine and Fills are an energetic remedy in these complaints.

Extract of a letter from Mr. Joseph C. Paulding, dated Philadelphia, Sept. 7th, 1848. Da. G. W. HALSEY:
Dear Sir. Your Forest Wine and Pills have cured my wife of a dreadful Nervous disorder, with which she had been affected for many years. Her hody was almost wasted away. Roots, Herbs and Vegetable substances which have a specific influence upon the lungs and their connocted organs. Its interpret is to allay all irritation and gently remove the phlegis and other morbid secretions from the Throat and Air-Passages, thus relieving the Cough, by subduing the influences in the relieving the Cough, by subduing the influences and intercauses which give rises to it. Italies stimulates and imparts a healthy tome to the Lungs themselves, thereby enabling them more thoroughly to remove from the blood those impurities and diseased particles, which, if retained, do so much mischief in the system, and lays the four dat on for incurable CONSUMPTION. It also exerts a decided action upon the skin, and assists nature in exicling the would otherwise be thrown back upon the Lungs, thus relieving thom of a part of their work, and rendering the system pure and healthy. When turberoles are forming, it checks their development and further progress; or iffueration has taken piace, it assists the lungs in throwing off the corrupted matter, southes the irritation, beals the ulcerated cavities, and restores them again to healthy action. This medictine, therefore, is not a palifative merely, which only relieves for the time being, but is a monoton citaaviva, as it strikes at the very root of the desage, and by removing it, removes at once all its remove and attendant consequences. This is its pastracouster to public.
